

University of Pannonia

Faculty of Modern Philology and Social Sciences

M.A. in American Studies

English and American Studies Institute(EASI)

- ✓ American degree issued by Nazareth College, Rochester, N.Y., USA
- ✓ 2 semesters in the U.S.A, 2 semesters in Hungary
- ✓ Outstanding international professors
- ✓ 1 year practical training in the U.S. after graduation
- ✓ Great career prospects
- ✓ Historical surroundings both in the U.S. and Hungary
- ✓ Custom-tailored student advising

METK

- 4 semesters – full time study
  - 2 semesters at the University of Pannonia
  - 2 semesters at Nazareth College (Rochester, N.Y., USA)
- degree issued by Nazareth College;
- admissions requirements: BA in a study programme in the humanities or social sciences; letter of motivation; appropriate language skills; admissions interview (personally or via Skype)

Nazareth College

Nazareth College is located in Pittsford, the scenic suburb of Rochester in upstate New York on wonderful green campus. Nazareth College is a private institution with approximately 2000 students, which, according to the Princeton Review (2013) is the best college in the Northeast of the U.S.

Who is the program for?

If you are interested in the different aspects of American culture and would like to earn a very competitive degree granting you a huge advantage on the European and American job market, this study program is definitely for you.

Excellence

- outstanding international professors
- all faculty members have a PhD
- faculty have received numerous grants and scholarships – Fulbright, Erasmus, Campus Hungary, Soros, and National Scientific Research Fund grants.

Custom-tailored student advising

Adopting the best practice of excellent student advising system of Nazareth College for both the Hungarian and American parts of the program, each student has a supervisor who

- helps with planning the courses of study tailored to the needs of the student;
- helps with individual research work;
- resulting in a shorter time needed to accomplish the program.

Course materials

All courses are supported by free, on-line course materials (course-books, textbooks, slides, articles), outstanding printed and electronic books and library.

Program costs

For a detailed description of tuition fees and living costs both in the U.S. and Hungary, see our homepage at

<https://www2.naz.edu/tuition-aid/costs/graduate-tuition/>

Career prospects

Graduates of the joint American studies M.A. have a wide range of career options available for them in the areas of the media, education, publishing, international companies, project organizations, in American, Hungarian and European government organizations, municipalities, in the cultural institutions of Europe and the U.S. and in non-governmental organizations.

Unique atmosphere

Veszprém

- a thousand-year-old town at the foot of the Bakony Hills close to Lake Balaton, the biggest lake resort of Eastern and Central Europe;
- great cultural and sports facilities (MKB Veszprém handball team; Veszprém Sports Arena; Petöfi Theatre; Street Music Festival; rock, jazz and classical music concerts in our Tuning Fork Concert Hall);

- the safest county seat in Hungary with the lowest crime rate in the country

Rochester

- liveable surroundings in the suburbs of a great American city;
- first class student services;
- in an area in upstate New York rich in natural resources and historical monuments on Lake Ontario close to Niagara Falls;
- in a city of rich cultural life – Eastman Theater, Rochester Jazz Festival – and constant economic growth – Kodak, Xerox, Bausch & Lomb.

Admissions

Contact either our American or Hungarian program director at their addresses on the back of this brochure and visit our homepage for all the necessary information.

Dr. Scott Campbell • Nazareth College
4245 East Avenue, Rochester, NY 14618 USA
(+1 585) 389-2525

<https://www2.naz.edu/academics/grad/american-studies-degree-program/scampbe8@naz.edu>

Dr. Szilárd Szentgyörgyi • University of Pannonia
3 Egyetem u., Veszprém, H-8200 Hungary
(+36 88) 624-378

<http://angolweb.mftk.uni-pannon.hu> • easi@uni-pannon.hu

